

Membership of the Adlerian Network of Ireland Ltd.

(Based on the work of Alfred Adler)

By simply filling the form at the side of this letter and returning it to the secretary, you can become a member of the Adlerian Network of Ireland Ltd. In becoming a member you will receive notices of all workshops throughout the year.

The Adlerian Network of Ireland was launched in 1994

Aims:

- To advance public awareness of and education in the work of Alfred Adler.
- To promote professional interest in Adlers work and to develop training programmes which encourage high standards of practice.
- To teach individuals, groups and families effective ways of living cooperatively together.
- To promote a forum for the holding of lectures, seminars, meetings and training courses which will further enhance the aims and objectives of the A.N.I.
- To facilitate communication and the exchange of ideas between many individuals and groups in Ireland who are interested in Adlerian theory and practice.
- The Adlerian Network runs a weeklong Annual Summer school as well as several one day workshops throughout the year.
- We would like to encourage this work, which benefits all sections of the community. All people interested in upholding the aims and objectives are invited to become members.
