

The Adlerian Network of Ireland Spring Workshop 2009

Developing Resilient Children Teaching the Skills Of Social Interest

Presented by
Dr. William G. Nicoll, Counsellor Education,
Florida Atlantic University

Friday 6th March - 7:30-9:30
Saturday 7th March - 10:00 am - 4.30 p.m.

Tipperary Institute, Clonmel

This workshop will include a live demonstration and introduce a school and family based programme that teaches the essential social- emotional competencies of resilient youth.

The concept of resiliency acknowledges that life presents challenges in adverse and unexpected events. How can we promote resiliency - the capacity to move through challenges in a way that enhances rather than diminishes mental health?
